

Comic Strip Activity – Wednesday

As this year has been a bit of a strange year for us all, your task today is to create a comic strip of how the year has been for you. This will be different for every child as each year will have been different. It will be an interesting way for you to look back in the future and remember what has happened whilst you were in Year 4. You can use the template below if you wish.

