

Hi Year 4,

You should now have an edited and upgraded warning story. I hope you're proud of it! Today, you will create a final draft of this story, including all of the changes that you made yesterday. This should be done in your neatest handwriting. You can add an illustration when you finish, if you like. It would also be nice to read your story to someone at home – I'm sure they would love to hear it!